

EMIRATES GOLF CLUB DRESS CODE

Majlis, Faldo & Driving Range

Like any prestigious golf club in the world, Emirates Golf Club has its own Dress Code requirements to reflect its proud status. While on Golf Club premises, all members and visitors must maintain a reasonably conservative standard of dress and follow the required dress code.

Permitted

Shirts

T-shirt with collar and sleeves is required. Mock neck golf shirts are allowed.

Trousers / shorts

Tailored shorts or trousers are required

Socks

Long, ankle and trainer socks

Shoes

Golf shoes with soft spikes or flat soled training shoes

Not Permitted

Shirts

Round neck t-shirts without collar
Vests and National Dress
Football tshirts

Trousers / shorts

Cargo trousers/shorts
Denim
Poolwear

Socks

No socks

Shoes (Due to terrain of land and to promote safety)

Flip flops / sandals
Open shoes not permitted
Smart shoes

If improperly dressed, golfers will be respectfully asked to change to proper attire. Failure to comply with the dress code may result in access being denied to the course and/or driving range.

The decision of Emirates Golf Club is final.