

EMIRATES GOLF CLUB DRESS CODE

Par 3 Course

Like any prestigious golf club in the world, Emirates Golf Club has its own Dress Code requirements to reflect its proud status. While this is the case, it is also important to acknowledge that with Topgolf and the Par 3 course being routes into the game of golf, the dress code should reflect this.

Permitted

Shirts

T-shirts with or without a collar
Not required to be tucked in Football/sport tops allowed

Trousers / shorts

Cargo/combat
Denim Jeans
Gym shorts

Socks

Long, ankle and trainer socks

Shoes

Golf shoes and trainers
Sports shoes

Not Permitted

Shirts

Vests and National Dress

Trousers / shorts

Swim shorts

Socks

No socks

Shoes (Due to terrain of land and to promote safety)

Flip flops / sandals
Open shoes not permitted
Smart shoes

If improperly dressed, golfers will be respectfully asked to change to proper attire. Failure to comply with the dress code may result in access being denied to the Par 3 course and/or being asked to leave the course.

The decision of Emirates Golf Club is final.